REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claim 1

The prior art of record neither anticipates nor fairly and reasonably teaches a system for providing reservation data comprising, inter alia, a monitoring system coupled to the master reservation system, the monitoring system storing each set of inventory update data and sequence number data associated with the set of inventory update data as required by claim 1.

The most remarkable prior art of record is to MacDonald (Patent Application Publication No. 2002/0099576 A1). MacDonald does not anticipate nor fairly and reasonably teach a monitoring system coupled to the master reservation system, the monitoring system storing each set of inventory update data and sequence number data associated with the set of inventory update data. Moreover, none of the prior art of record remedies the deficiencies found in MacDonald.

Regarding claim 8

The prior art of record neither anticipates nor fairly and reasonably teaches a method for providing reservation data comprising, inter alia, storing the inventory status data with an associated sequence number as required by claim 8.

The most remarkable prior art of record is to MacDonald (Patent Application Publication No. 2002/0099576 A1). MacDonald does not anticipate nor fairly and reasonably teach storing the inventory status data with an associated sequence number. Moreover, none of the prior art of record remedies the deficiencies found in MacDonald.

Regarding claim 15

The prior art of record neither anticipates nor fairly and reasonably teaches a method for providing reservation data comprising, inter alia, wherein updating the database with status data further comprises storing the status update data and a unique transaction sequence number associated with the status update data as required by claim 15.

The most remarkable prior art of record is to MacDonald (Patent Application Publication No. 2002/0099576 A1). MacDonald does not anticipate nor fairly and reasonably teach wherein updating the database with status data further comprises storing the status update data and a unique transaction sequence number associated with the status update data. Moreover, none of the prior art of record remedies the deficiencies found in MacDonald.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Ota, Kazuhiko, Pub-No: JP02002269419A, September 20, 2002, discloses a hotel reservation method on the Internet.
